Teen Leadership's Program Requirements

I. High School Requirements:

The following requirements must be completed by the time the student graduates from high school:

- A. The student must have at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA for all course work attempted in grades 9 through 12.
 - The student must also agree to:
 - attend school regularly and do homework regularly;
 - refrain from substance abuse;
 - refrain from criminal or delinquent acts;
 - have school work and school records reviewed by an appropriate school official;
- [Note: Compliance with conduct standards will be based upon the local school district's policy.]

Remember: You, the student, are ultimately responsible for completing the program requirements

II. Essay Requirements

The student must write a 2 page, double spaced, MLA format essay discussing why they best exemplify the Culver Code of Conduct. The Culver Code of Conduct is used at one of the world's greatest college preparatory high schools in Culver, IN and the Board of directors feels that more students around the world should follow this code of conduct. For more information/questions regarding the essay or the code of conduct please email info@teenleadership.org and for more information on Culver please visit www.culver.org.

The Culver Code of Conduct

My aim in life is to become the best person I can be.
To this end I will strive always to develop my potential to its fullest – physically, intellectually, morally and spiritually;
to make wise choices, exercise self-discipline, and accept responsibility for my actions;
to treat others as I would have them treat me;
to fulfill the ideal of service to my fellow man;
to place duty before self;
to lead by example and take care of those I lead; and to live by the Culver Honor Code:

I will not lie, cheat, or steal, and I will discourage others from such actions.
